BATAVIA, Jan. 26.—American "flying fortress" bombers and a Dutch submarine have dealt stunning new blows to the battered Japanese invasion fleet in the Strait of Macassar, an official war communique announced today.

Two Japanese cruisers, a destroyer and a large transport vessel were declared to have been sunk or damaged in these newest United States and Dutch counter-attacks in defense of the Netherlands East Indies.

These new successes were in addition to previously announced blows by Dutch planes on two Japanese cruisers and one transport near Balikpapan. One Dutch bomber was lost in this particular action.

The American planes yesterday sank a large transport ship and scored a direct hit on a cruiser in an attack on a Japanese convoy in Macassar strait, according to a communique issued from Gen. Sir Archibald Wavell's headquarters of the Pacific high command of the United Nations.

Destroyer Sunk

The N. E. I. high command stated a Dutch submarine, adding to recent Netherlands naval successes, sank a Jap destroyer and scored a torpedo hit on an enemy cruiser in a night attack in the battle-churned waters of Macassar strait.

SINGAPORE, Jan. 26.—Japanese occupation of Batu Pahat on the western Malayan battle front was acknowledged by the British Far Eastern command today.

(Batu Pahat, around which heavy fighting has swirled for several days, is situated about 60 miles northwest of Singapore.)

Offsetting the loss of Batu Pahat, however, the British war bulletin announced forays by a Sikh battalion north of Klang that caused more than 400 Jap casualties and also announced British air attacks on military objectives at Batu Pahat, the Kuala Lumpur airdrome, Muar and other points.

Severe damage was said to have been wrought on military objectives at Batu Pahat after it was seized by the Japanese.

Jap Convoy Sighted

The communique said a Japanese convoy had been sighted off Endau on the Malayan east coast, indicating the enemy is sending more reinforcements to that area.

"Japanese forces occupied Batu Pahat," the new war communique said.

Charge U-Boat Pretended To Be Lightship

(International News Service)

NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 26.—Reporting 22 of their fellow crewmen missing, 21 survivors of the torpedoed ore carrier, the S. S. Venore, today charged that the sinking of their vessel occurred because an Axis submarine pretended it was a lightship.

The survivors from the ill-fated vessel were picked up by the S. S. Tennessee, a Texaco tanker, and brought safely into port after spending 38 hours on the sea in a lone open lifeboat.

According to one survivor, E. P. Driver, a fireman from Macagoches, Tex., the submarine was on the surface of the board with lights ablaze when it was first encountered.

Driver who was on watch at the time, said that the lights of the undersea raider were plainly visible but that the submarine began flashing signals with blinker lights identifying itself as a lightship.

A few seconds later, he said, a shell hit the ore carrier amidship on the port side and the ship began to founder.

About 10 minutes later, the sub fired a torpedo. When the torpedo hit, a great shower of water was splashed up and Driver saw some members of the crew swept overboard.

MOSCOW, Jan. 26.—Advancing Soviet forces on the north central front approached the strategic Leningrad-Vitebsk railway today after recapturing Netidovo, 50 miles west of the Nazi garrison at Rzhev.

Recapture of Netidovo on the Moscow-Riga railway brought the Russian wedge within 50 miles of Velikiye Luki.

Survance of the Leningrad-Kiev rail line by the Russians would cut off the northern Nazi armies from contact with the Nazi legions on the central and southern fronts.

A British radio broadcast heard by NBC said the Moscow radio announced that the cordon of minefields and the belt of pillboxes around Rzhev has been broken by Soviet troops and that the German, in Rzhev "are now cut off from the west, north and east."

The Soviet information bureau declared more than 300,000 German officers and men were killed between Dec. 6 and Jan. 15, adding:

Huge Losses In Wounded

"It is difficult to estimate their losses in wounded, frost-bitten and sick, which undoubtedly are tremendous."

In addition, the high command announced, Red army forces liberated 694 towns and villages from Nazi control between Jan. 16 and 25, and killed 12,000 Germans at the front in the same period.

U. S. Ore Carrier Sunk Off Eastern Coast

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Disclosing that a seventh vessel has been sunk by enemy action off the nation's eastern seaboard, the navy today told how the U. S. Venore, a 8,016-ton ore carrier from New York, flashed a distress call, finally became silent and sank.

The vessel was torpedoed off the Atlantic coast, Jan. 24.

The navy simply reported that the vessel was sunk Saturday and described its distress call but from Norfolk, the 5th naval district reported of the carriers' crew of 43 officers and men, only 21 had been rescued with 22 missing. The survivors are at Norfolk.

The boat, owned by the Ore Steamship Co., of New York, sent out its first distress message at 12:45 a. m. Jan. 24 and at 1:22 a. m.—38 minutes later—issued its last plea for assistance.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The war department disclosed today that seven American flying fortresses cooperated with American naval units in the large scale attack upon a huge Japanese convoy in the Macassar Straits, bringing to at least 11 the number of enemy vessels, including transports, sunk by forces of this nation in the Borneo area.

Fighting off attacking Jap fighter planes the army bombers sank one transport, set fire to another and shot down five enemy planes. Previously naval units attached to the Asiatic fleet in the battle had sunk at least 10 enemy vessels, including five transports.

Gen. Sir Archibald Wavell, Allied commander-in-chief in the Far East, announced from his South Pacific headquarters that American bombers were cooperating with Dutch naval and air units in the attack upon the Jap convoy and credited them with sinking a large transport and scoring a direct hit on a cruiser. Whether the transport sunk was the same one reported by Washington today was not clear.

Dutch Sink Ships Also

(At the same time, the Netherlands East Indies high command stated that a Dutch submarine, sank a Jap destroyer and scored a torpedo hit on an enemy cruiser in the battle of Macassar strait.)

Communications from the navy and army disclosed that American units engaged in the large scale air and naval battles escaped with minor damage and no known casualties.

A consensus of dispatches indicated that the Macassar battle has resulted in the most serious setback yet suffered by the Japanese in the Pacific war.

Meanwhile, it appeared that Japanese units on the Bataan peninsula have been stopped temporarily by Gen. Douglas MacArthur's American-Filipino army as the result of the smashing counter-attack dealt by the defenders to the Nipponese forces.

Philippines Quiet

The army communique stated that since MacArthur's bold and successful counter effort, fighting on the peninsula has been confined to "relatively unimportant skirmishes on the west coast in the vicinity of Subic bay."

Bolivia, Peru And Paraguay In Axis Break

(International News Service)

RIO DE JANEIRO Jan. 26.—Bolivia, Peru and Paraguay broke with the Axis today as delegates to the inter-American conference predicted that 19 and perhaps even 20 of the western hemisphere republic will do likewise before the meeting ends tomorrow.

There was a possibility that even Chile may break with the Axis nations by the time the conference closes. If not, Chile may act sometime next month. Action by Chile and the other nations is expected to leave Argentina alone among the American republics still maintaining relations with the Axis nations.

Last night the conference took steps to prevent encroachment of foreign air lines in the western hemisphere. The recommendations to this end were aimed at Axis air transport lines which until recently have controlled much of the air travel in South America.

Seven In Family Die From Fumes

Tragedy Occurs At Pittsburgh

Carbon Monoxide Fumes Prove Deadly To Parents And Five Children

CLOGGED FLUE IS BLAMED AS CAUSE

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, Jan. 26. — Despite the heroic efforts of doctors, firemen and police, all seven members of a Mt. Washington family were dead today from the effects of carbon monoxide fumes which flooded their basement apartment after a heavy coating of soot had clogged the flue of a hot water heater.

Those killed in one of the worst local tragedies of its kind in recent years were Frank L. Johnson, 48, a paper-hanger; his wife, Carrie, 34; and their five children: Frank, Jr., 13; Alvin, 12; Winona, 11; Emma, 10; and Walter, four. The only survivor in the apartment was the family dog, which, curiously enough, aroused the suspicion of a neighbor when she saw it lying on the kitchen floor. The dog revived itself without help after being carried into the fresh air.

Police, doctors, firemen, utility company emergency crews and internes worked desperately for seven hours to save the members of the stricken family, but one by one, they succumbed from the effects of the fumes. Mrs. Johnson was the last to die at 9 o'clock last night.

Tests made after death showed that the amount of carbon monoxide in the victims' blood ranged from 60 to 90 per cent. Twenty per cent is sufficient to cause death. Another checkup showed that the three-inch flue in the kitchen was clogged almost solidly with soot. An emergency crew said that the pipe, although only about six feet long, contained almost a bushel of soot.

that despite furious American and Dutch naval attacks on the Japanese transports in the Macassar strait, the Japs effected additional landings at Balikpapan on the east coast of Borneo and at Kendari on Celebes island.

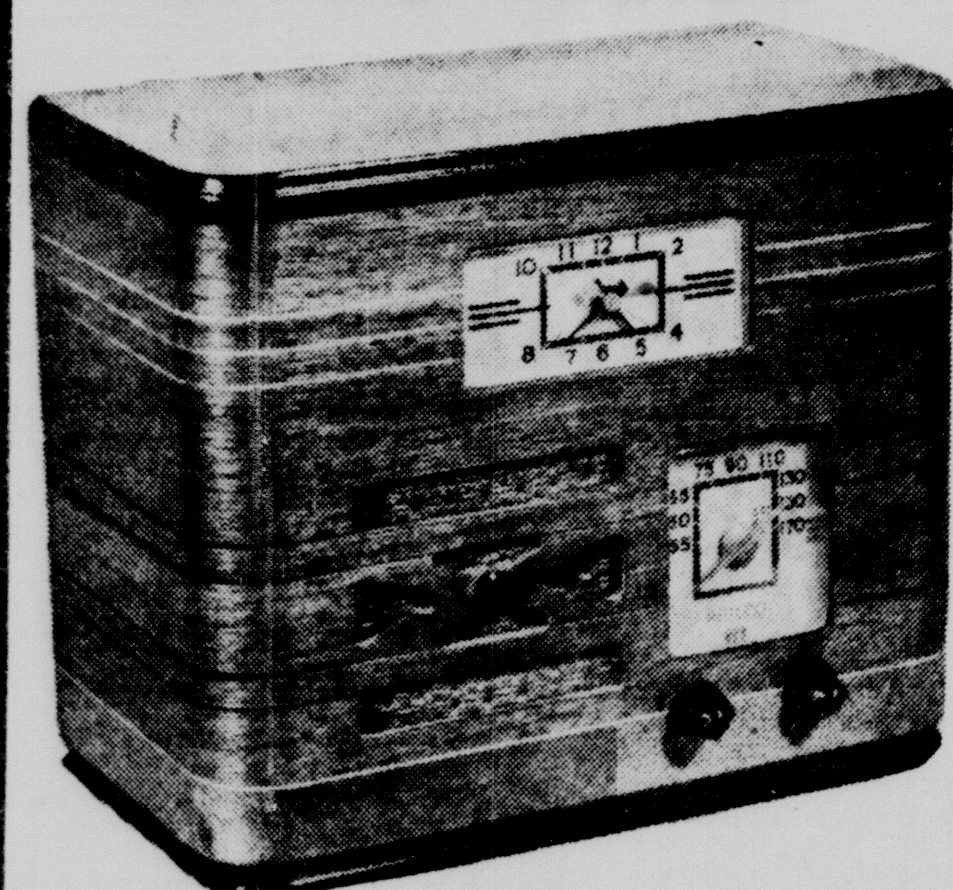

These additional footholds were gained despite the reported loss of 22 transports and warships in the Macassar strait in the past three days. Nineteen Japanese ships were damaged or sunk Friday and Saturday, said the first communique issued by General Archibald Wavell's headquarters "somewhere in Java". Three ships were "certainly sunk" and four "probably sunk".

Heaviest Jap Losses
One squadron of American "Flying Fortress" bombers participated in the week-end attacks on the Japanese transports, and shot down five enemy fighters. American destroyers blew up one Japanese transport and torpedoed another in a night attack.

The communique from General Wavell's headquarters called the Japanese losses over the week-end "the heaviest they have suffered in any single operation since the war began."

Balikpapan, rich oil district, has been left vulnerable to the invaders through destruction of its oil properties, said the Netherlands East Indies communique. More than $100,000,000 worth of installations were destroyed in following out the scorched earth policy.

In addition, the communique said, a 5,000-ton enemy transport was sunk in the Barents Sea off Murmansk.

FURTHER INQUIRY IN PEARL HARBOR ATTACK IS URGED

the position that it did not go far enough.

While members of congress appeared mainly concerned with making sure that the blame reached every responsible quarter, military experts expressed conviction that the board's emphasis on the failure of Kimmel and Short to cooperate again opens the entire question of a closer coordination of naval and military effort under a compact, single command.

Whether Kimmel and Short will be court-martialed for the "dereliction of duty" with which the board charged them is a matter entirely in the hands of President Roosevelt. The White House has stated that Mr. Roosevelt desires to give the evidence a thorough study before deciding on a course of action, the congressional demands for a court-martial notwithstanding.

Seek Further Inquiry

The requests that the inquiry extend further into the war and navy departments came from Chairman Walsh of the senate naval affairs committee, Sen. Brooks (R) Ill., and Sen. La Follette (D) Wis.

Although the board's report specifically absolved Secretary of War Simson and Secretary of Navy Knox from blame and credited them with forecasting the Dec. 7 event, these senators demanded that a determination be made why the two cabinet officers had not made sure that proper defenses of Pearl Harbor were in operation.

La Follette, siding with military experts went further and declared that the report showed a clear need for a reopening of the question of "consolidation in the defense organization."

While some members of congress asserted that Kimmel and Short should either be court-martialed or dismissed or both, the general sentiment favored leaving this decision to Mr. Roosevelt.

Sen. Joseph (D) Colo., declared that they "should certainly be court-martialed."

A member of the house military affairs committee, Rep. Dewey (R) N. Y., demanded a "general house-cleaning of the incompetents" and said that those at fault "should not only be relieved of their commands, they should be court-martialed."

Sen. Brooks (R) Ill., also demanded that congress investigate to determine:

"Why our secretary of the navy and secretary of war consented to the sending of our military and naval equipment to other countries and other parts of the world when they knew war with Japan was inevitable, and our most important outpost was inadequately supplied with personnel materiel and equipment to put it on a war footing."

The Roberts board, in charging Admiral Kimmel and General Short with "dereliction of duty" at Hawaii, summed up the Pearl Harbor situation on Dec. 7 thusly:

Report of Probers

"There were deficiencies in personnel, weapons equipment and facilities to maintain all the defense on a war footing for extended periods of time, but these deficiencies should not have affected the decision of the responsible commanders as to the state of readiness to be prescribed."

"The Japanese attack was a complete surprise to the commanders, and they failed to make suitable dispositions 'to meet such an attack. Each failed properly to evaluate the seriousness of the situation. These errors of judgment were the effect causes for the success of the attack."

In detail, the board disclosed some other amazing facts. It reported that despite many warnings of potential war from Washington, the navy failed to maintain reconnaissance flights around Hawaii and that the army failed to maintain an inshore plane control and also closed down its air raid warning system at 7 a. m. each morning—just 55 minutes before the fatal attack on Dec. 7.

The investigating board also reported that a navy plane and a destroyer sank a Japanese submarine in a prohibited harbor area at 6:33 a. m. on Dec. 7—one hour and 22 minutes before the attack—but nothing was done about it. It further reported that a volunteer non-commissioned officer at 7:02 a. m.—53 minutes before the attack—reported unrecognized planes 130 miles north of Pearl Harbor, but that an "inexperienced lieutenant" did nothing about it because he "assumed" they were American planes.

Despite all these shortcomings, the board found that once the attack started, "both officers and men responded immediately in the emergency and exhibited initiative, efficiency and bravery in meeting the raid."

Many congressional leaders meanwhile expressed belief that the punishment of Kimmel and Short should be left to Mr. Roosevelt. Many agreed with Sen. Thomas (D) Utah, who said:

"If the army and navy have taken the lesson of Pearl Harbor to heart, terrible as it was, the price of future alertness and cooperation is cheap."

been destroyed over Burma and local airdromes since the start of the war, while the anti-Axis forces operating from Burma had lost only nine machines.

Heavy air raids on the Japanese-held airport at Hanoi, Indo-China, were believed to be a prelude to invasion of Thailand and Indo-China by Chinese and British empire troops massed in Burma and the Chinese troops have been "pouring into Burma" and massing along the Indo-China frontier.

Japanese Attacks
But Japanese attacks in this area are continuing with admitted effectiveness. Two merchant ships have been sunk in the Bay of Bengal off the eastern shore of India, and British forces in south Burma have again withdrawn to new positions where Japanese and Thailand forces are on the offensive.

A Tokyo dispatch from Bangkok said Thailand had declared war on the United States and Great Britain, and that its troops were advancing into Burma.

Fliers of the United Nations air forces were reported to have carried out very successful raids on Bangkok over the week-end while more than 70 bombers from China, escorted by American fighter pilots, raided Hanoi airdrome.

Japanese and Thailand troops attacking towards Moumein were reported to be suffering heavy casualties, but still advancing. Exact positions of the British defense lines were not revealed, although further withdrawals were admitted.

FAITH
THERE IS A DIFFERENCE—
Some people are paid for talking, but it costs us money to talk, and more so since the rise in prices of advertising. So, from now on, we are going to try to keep within our regular space. A short time ago one of our prominent citizens passed away, and in his will he graciously remembered so many different organizations by leaving them a legacy. In looking them over, I found the name of one missing, which I know would have been there had someone mentioned it to him. That one was the City Rescue Mission.
Now, if you have made your will, just change it the least bit, or if you have not made your will, when you make it, don't forget the City Rescue Mission, who is "Everlastingly At It," and it takes money to keep it going.

BOUGHTER-JOKENIN WEDDING IN CHURCH

An impressive wedding ceremony took place in the Second U. P. church on Saturday evening, January 24, at 6:30 when Mary Elizabeth Boughter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Boughter of 465 East Washington street, became the bride of Harvey Jokenin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Jokenin, Sr., of South Ray street.

The vows were exchanged in the presence of a throng of friends and relatives of the young couple, the bridal party standing before the beautifully embanked altar. The solid green background of ferns and palms was set off in the glow of lighted candles. Rev. Calvin Rose, pastor, officiated with the single ring service.

U. S. AIR FORCE EXCELS

News that American flyers have brought down 100 Japanese planes over the Burma Road since December 7, with a loss of only three of their planes, corroborates what had previously been demonstrated in the Pacific—that American planes and American flyers are much more than a match for an equal number of Jap planes.

Getting American planes and air personnel to the Far Pacific, and providing bases of operation, constitute a huge task. The dispatch of bombers is fairly simple, but sending the shorter range fighter planes calls for considerably more time. Bombers can leave San Francisco and be in Australia in four or five days over the Honolulu, Samoa route. The longest stretch is the 2,400-mile hop to Hawaii. And the increasing damage done to the Japanese by these sky tanks indicates that some of them have arrived since the war began.

Delivery of fighting planes to overseas destination is a matter of crating and shipping. Pacific routes are hazardous now. The comparatively safe route around Africa and Australia is long. A freighter sailing for Australia by way of the Cape of Good Hope on Christmas Day would still be on the high seas.

But there is a possibility of greater dispatch in fighter plane delivery. Flying range of these smaller planes is being increased. Probably many of them could make the 1,800 mile hop from Brazil to Africa. From there it would be an all-land flight to the Pacific war area, a trip that even a small plane could make in several weeks.

Before the war is much older America will be delivering clouds of planes on their own wings to wrest air control from the Japanese. Dispatches are bringing word from the Orient almost daily of aerial battles in which Americans are taking steady toll of Japanese ships, including transports, tankers and merchantmen.

This is an opening chapter in the conflict off Asia destined to develop into one of the determining factors in the war. The United States air force has been given the job of driving the Japs from the air and American flyers will not turn back.

From the start of its undeclared war, Japan has placed its main dependence on the plane, using it in attack on sea vessels, in clearing beachheads and in leading infantry assault. This aerial challenge, is not yet two months old, but America is already meeting it and will continue to augment its fighting flying force until the Japanese are no longer a menace over head.

SUBMARINE RANGE

How far can a modern submarine range without refueling? There is no definite information available, although there is much speculation because of the activities of German U-boats off the Atlantic coast and reports that United States submarines are operating in Far Pacific waters. Where Allied submarines are based is of course a military secret.

Naval information—none too authoritative—gives a submarine of 800 to 1,500 ton surface displacement a cruising range, out and back, of 5,000 to 15,000 miles, depending on type and purpose.

If the top figure is correct a German submarine, operating off the coast of France, could ply American waters for several weeks. American submarines are larger and, again assuming the information to be reliable, could leave the Pacific United States coast, visit Japanese waters and operate there for a matter of days.

This long-distance submarine work is not new to war. Twenty-four years ago German U-boats operated off the Atlantic coast of North America. One of them shelled a string of barges off Cape Cod. Undersea craft has been greatly improved since then and undoubtedly range of operation has been increased.

Fortunately for America, range of bombers has not yet been stepped up to 15,000 miles.

NO ERSATZ CAPITAL

President Roosevelt has a secret list of those marked for a sorry fate—that is, for a thorough-going bureaucrat—to wit, to be banished from Washington.

The President asserts that such a multitude of new defense workers will come to Washington in the next six months that more non-defense agencies will have to be moved out of the capital, even if an intensified building program is undertaken. Knowing what pressure can do, Mr. Roosevelt proposes to keep his list secret.

If Washington is an acquired taste, it is a taste seldom lost. Nothing can replace it, no ersatz Washington at New York, Philadelphia or Omaha. It has its own peculiar tempo, atmosphere and quasi-Southern charm. Yet these precise qualities have, on a number of occasions, been cited as cause for the removal of the capital elsewhere. Washington, it has been charged, is unrepresentative and un-American.

A decade ago a Chicago newspaper urged removal of the capital to the shores of Lake Michigan. During President Grant's administration there was agitation for removal to Saint Louis.

These demands were based on a number of debatable assumptions, one that the capital, to be American, should be situated in a large industrial and financial nexus of population; another that the heart of America cannot beat except at its geographical center. True it is that the capital was sited on the Potomac as the result of a compromise between Hamilton and Jefferson. True it is that this was not a "natural" location, but the artificial creation of a mere fiat. True it is that Washington is not "American" within the meaning of New York, Chicago, Denver or San Francisco.

But Washington is not going to be moved. Enforced migration of non-defense agencies elsewhere will please those with a distaste for wide urban spaces, Grecian temples, diplomats, politicians and rich widows. The prospect that all twenty-six Allies are to send war missions to Washington will convince some of its "foreignness."

Washington will become the most crowded of war capitals, and no secret exile list that the President can devise will be able to prevent it.

Speaking of the impending shortage if the supply of rubber really disappears then the traffic problem will be solved for a time at least.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

ARE HUMANS BEST PARENTS?

Are parents human beings? The other day I had to talk on this subject before a large men's club. Perhaps you could have made a better speech. I did the best I could. Here are my notes:

Are parents human beings? Yes; that's the trouble. Monkey mothers and deer dads, also parents of other animals we consider inferior, don't seem to have the frailties we are familiar with in human parents.

Their children hardly know when they have a headache or morning grouch. They don't come home tired and irritable from the golf links or club or bridge party, or have to hurry to a prize fight or prayer meeting. Animal parents do not nag; they do not bound their children off to bed nor build up an inferno around their meals or music lessons. If Dante were to write again today he would have a dinner scene, with both parents playing the devil's part.

Faults Animals Avoid

Animal parents do not ridicule their children or laugh at their mistakes. They always try to keep them infantile. They don't get more angry at their own children than their neighbors. They don't tug at the heartstrings of their children, nor weep over them and teach them to enjoy their parental grief and worries. They don't annoy their children with their "oughts" and "don'ts" and "should have known better," nor hold them up to standards of conduct above their own.

Animal children are not expected to be more courteous and honest than their parents, nor to eat spinach when their daddies don't. The parents among lower animals are pretty consistent, since they obey a few inner urges which are highly continuous and have habits which are very constant.

Failings Of Human Parents

We human parents continuously annoy our children by our inconsistencies. We forever wobble, and our children know it. Animal parents don't have family pride that make them scold and punish their children because some friend or neighbor thinks they should; that arouse personality fears in the young because of anxiousness about shaking hands and saying how do you do.

As human beings we are superior. (Continued On Page Five)

The World and the Mud Puddles

"CRUEL AND INHUMAN"

"He called me a thief, and said I stole his goods and gave them to my children by a former marriage to furnish their homes with. Besides that, he swore at me." This testified a woman in her suit for a divorce from her husband. "Yes, and she struck me on the head with a pancake turner, and cursed me beside," the husband replied.

It seems that this was a second marriage for both parties. As part of the bargain, the wife agreed to enter the new husband's home and keep house for him and his grown sons. The marriage did not work out successfully, and finally the wife sued for divorce. Said the Supreme Court of Oregon in awarding her a decree:

"We are constrained to concur with the trial court to the effect that it constitutes cruel and inhuman treatment to continually accuse his wife of stealing from him without having any more grounds therefor than is shown herein."

With regard to the matter of mutual swearing, the court remarked:

"It may not be amiss to say that where one spouse is habitually addicted to the use of profane, vile and obscene language, the mere use of such language by the other spouse in conversations and differences between the two should not be dignified by the term cruelty. It merely denotes the mutual use of a debased and degrading vocabulary."

HAPPYGRAMS

by ERICH BRANDEIS

It's one of the oddities of human nature that war, with all its horror, its cruelty and destruction, also brings out the best in us.

A little old lady had been living by herself for many years. Her children had scattered, she had no friends.

Then came the war. A volunteer worker, collecting aluminum, called on her.

The old lady had none, but the visitor found out about the woman's loneliness and poverty.

She told her friends about it and since then scores of people have visited her, brought her presents and even gave her some light work that she could do for the Red Cross.

"I haven't been so happy in twenty years," she said to one of her visitors.

The war has opened our hearts. Let us keep them open when peace comes again.

Bible Thought For Today

Some sheep wander away and must be brought back. They are in great danger when the shepherd is not near them. God is wiser and stronger than we. Be led by Him: He shall feed his flock like a shepherd; he shall gather the lambs in his arms, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young.—Isaiah 40:11.

STRANDED IN CHARLOTTE

A negro, with an old gray milk hitched to a ramshackle wagon, stood on Tryon street, in Charlotte, N. C., during one of the worst sleet storms in January.

The old man huddled in his rabbit skin cap, shivering; the milk was trembling with the cold. A man waiting for a street car was attracted by the strange outfit and wondered as time went on and the negro made no effort to depart.

He waited the old fellow, so he walked over to him and said: "Why don't you move on, uncle?" The old negro pointed a trembling finger at his "team" and replied: "Cause dis yere milk won't go 'les' I whistle at him, and it's so cold I cya'm't whistle!"

THE MONTH TO MARRY

Marry when the year is new. Always loving, kind and true. When February birds do mate. You may wed, nor dread your fate. If you wed when March winds blow, Joy and sorrow both you'll know.

Marry in April when you can, Joy for maiden and for man. Always wed in the month of May. You will surely rue the day.

Marry when June roses blow, Over land and sea you'll go. Those who in July do wed, Must labor always for their bread.

Marry in August, too, Many a change are sure to see. Marry in September's shine, Your living will be rich and fine.

If in October you do marry, Love will come, but riches tarry. If you wed in bleak November, Only joy will come, remember.

When December snows fall fast, Marry, and true love will last.

AND NOW I'LL TELL ONE

Mark Twain and Bishop Doane were old friends, fond of twitting each other. And the bishop, who possessed a fine sense of humor, enjoyed Twain's criticisms of his sermons, such criticisms usually putting different interpretations on the bishop's expressions than were intended. On one occasion at which Twain attended the bishop's church, he offered no criticism of the sermon, whereat the bishop became a bit concerned. For the better his sermon, the quicker was Twain to criticize it. Unable to restrain himself, he asked, "What did you think of my sermon, Mark?" Twain shrugged his shoulders and remained silent. Now the bishop was really worried. "Come, come, Mark," he said, "what was wrong with it?" Twain, with his back to the bishop, fumbled with some of the books in the bookcase. "Was it original?" he asked. "Of course it was," replied the bishop. "Well," drawled Twain, "I have a book at home that contains every word of it." The bishop was agast. "Impossible!" he said. "You'll have to show me the book." Twain left without saying goodbye. The next day Bishop Doane, who spent a sleepless night, received a package from Twain. Quickly he tore off the wrapping. It contained Webster's dictionary.

What Noted People Say

(International News Service)
LONDON — Dr. Willington Koo, Chinese ambassador to Britain believes it is only a question of time before Soviet Russia enters the Japanese war.

"Soviet intervention in the Far East is something that is bound to happen."

ST. LOUIS — Supreme Court Justice Frank Murphy declares every Democratic principle is challenged by Jap aggression.

"Tonight in the far Pacific, the challenge is being met in battle. Men of the stamp of Colin Kelly are perpetuating the valiant traditions of Valley Forge, the Alamo and the unforgettable Wake Island."

CHICAGO — Paul Fishback, food broker, warns against hoarding. "There are no food shortages. The chief danger of temporary shortages is in panic buying—hoarding by housewives. There is no necessity for it, and the housewife is defeating her own interests by it."

LOS ANGELES — Will Durant, philosopher: "If we Americans will but realize that we can be beaten in this war, then we shall begin to win it."

New Way If Life Predicted By Pessimists
Will Pay Any Price To Win Says Roosevelt
Gloom Prophets See New Economical System

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—President Roosevelt's recent statement that "We've determined to pay whatever price we must to preserve our way of life," is plentifully indorsed in congress. There are a few croakers in every situation, though; this time, as usual. Even the croakers agree to the absolute necessity for spending any amount that's required to lick Herr Hitler and the rest of the Axis. They do forecast, however, that our past but already rapidly changing way of life will be gone for good by the time we've finished the job.

The government's own economists admit that we'll wind up the war with a national debt many times heavier than the whole world's combined indebtedness ever was before. Footing that bill will take generations and generations, according to life prophets of gloom, and they warn us that it'll be a task that can't but force a complete reorganization of our country's economy, greatly lowering living standards, boosting taxes sky high and compelling unprecedented business regimentation.

It's quite awhile since the White House tenant's financial, military and production experts submitted to him a report estimating that defeating the Axis will run to a total of from 120 to 150 billions. Maybe the figures would be higher now, expenditures either appropriated, authorized or asked for since June 30, 1940, already foot up to 114 billions. A little matter of 36 billions, between 114 and 150 of em, certainly won't last long if the conflict strings out considerably. Senator Millard E. Tydings of Maryland, a pretty close student of the land, a pretty close student of the subject, reckons that there'll be at least two years more of it. That's his minimum. Afterward it may go on indefinitely, for all Millard says he knows.

A Trillion Next

A trillion will be the next milestone. Now that debt is going to be a permanency, so far as concerns a century or two ahead. It's too soon to predict what effect it'll have had on our way of life by the time the year 2042 or 2142 rolls around.

We can see certain changes that are being made today, though. Are they going to be permanent, too, or are they just for the duration?

We can't yet answer that question, either, but some of us may live long enough to ascertain. That probably won't involve a wait on into near-infinity.

We've a censorship, for example. Will it end when the war does? The last one did, when that war (Continued On Page Five)

The Great Game Of Politics

The Spirit Of Congress

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26. UNLESS it experiences a quick change of heart it will never be said of this Congress that, during the war, it distinguished itself for disinterested and patriotic service. On the contrary, a strong case can be made right now for the reverse. Certainly, the record of the last six months is nothing of which to be proud.

TO BE sure, Congress has voted almost unanimously the uncounted billions asked by the President for the prosecution of the war. It widely applauded the Roosevelt and Churchill speeches. It has given the President all the personal power he asked. And much fervent oratory has come from Senators and Representatives personally stressing the necessity of sacrifices upon the part of the people. But have they themselves set an example in this business of sacrifice? Have they given any evidence of willingness to relinquish any personal perquisites in the national interest?

LET the record answer the questions. On December 12 the Senate by a vote of 53 to 30 inserted in an appropriation bill provision giving each Senator an additional $1500 a year clerk. This was done despite pleas of various Senators that it was a shameful and inequitable thing to do at this time and under these circumstances. The House, seemingly more self-respecting on this proposal, heeded the protest and refused to concur, thus killing this sneaky little scheme.

ON January 15, the Senate, by a vote of 42 to 24, passed a bill already passed by the House, extending the benefits of the Federal Civil Service Retirement System to all members of Congress. It is, of course, unprecedented. Persons elected to Federal office have never been regarded as entitled to retirement benefits. Heretofore they have appeared (Continued On Page Five)

Just Folks

PEARL HARBOR

Time was 'twas a spot
On a map or a chart
Where a ship could stop
For supplies and depart;
Just a resting place
On an ocean vast,
And a naval base.
Now all that's past.

Pearl Harbor today
Is the place that will be
Ages, ages away
Held in memory.
Evermore it's the spot
Where a sly foe swept
With fire, and shot
Brave boys as they slept.

Yes, remember we will
Through the war begun,
And remember it still
When the war is won.
Pearl Harbor, the spot
Where our heroes died
Neath a rain of shot,
And a race lost pride!

Sugar Rationing Starts In Canada

(International News Service)

OTTAWA, Jan. 26.—Rationing of sugar was effective in the Dominion of Canada today by order of the wartime prices and trade board. The Canadian restrictions, limiting each person to a maximum of three-quarters of a pound a week, were announced as Price Administrator Leon Henderson, in Washington, revealed plans to limit sugar consumption in the United States to one pound a week for each individual.

The Canadian rationing will be accomplished through strict government supervision of distribution, rather than by coupon ration cards. Use of sugar for industrial purposes also was curtailed.

Too Much Talk

Allan Harvie

There's too much loose talk by sailors and other persons about subjects that should be well-kept secrets, according to Allan Harvie, British seaman. He ought to know, because he has been aboard torpedoed ships four times.

Harvie, pictured in New York, says he believes a spy ring may have picked up the information about ships that recently have been torpedoed off the Atlantic coast from loose talk.

Of course, it's evident to everybody how strictly industry is being brought under Uncle Sam's thumb. The average civilian hasn't felt the effect of it much yet, with the exception of our huge class of auto tire users, but it'll catch 'em in the form of retail sales regulations generally, shortly, and then the rank and file of us will begin to find out what regimentation's like. Will it pass directly after the war ends? Or will we have acquired that habit, too?

Conditions promise to be different from those that prevailed in 1918. We were socked with a terrific debt at that juncture, but a mere bagatelle in comparison with the one we'll have on our hands in 1944 or 1945 or subsequently. May be this dose will be so severe that we'll HAVE to continue rigid regimentation for economic and miscellaneous social reasons, even after the actual wartime emergency's passed.

Furthermore, there are believers in a policy of regimentalization in normal times as well as when we're at war. Besides, these coming times won't be normal, anyway, as we've been acquainted with normality heretofore.

That thought's what makes pessimists squirm.

ended, but it doesn't necessarily follow that this one will also. Perhaps we'll get the habit.

The other day congress passed a bill empowering the president to take wartime command of all telegraphic and telephonic communication facilities. Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio gave it as his opinion, in the course of debate, that the president having done so, such facilities never will be returned to private control. As a matter of fact, they've governmentalized in a lot of countries, as part of their postal systems.

Then there's the administration's order scattering numerous federal agencies throughout the country, out of Washington.

Ostensibly it was issued because the capital's so crowded, but Senator Pat McCarran of Nevada declares it's the first step in a move, first to decentralize the present government, in order to reassemble it later as a super-government under complete executive domination than today's.

Wedding Date And Six Birthdays Are Honored At Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Pander, Wurtemburg, Entertain At Unusual Celebration

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 26.—One birthday anniversary in a family calls for a celebration, but when six members of an immediate family have birthdays in the same month, in addition to a wedding anniversary, it is a very unusual occasion and calls for an "all-out" celebration.

Just such an event took place on Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Lester Pander, of Wurtemburg, whose wedding anniversary was being observed. The birthdays honored were those of Mrs. Earl Badger, Mrs. Donald Hepler and her son, Don, Mrs. James Badger, Allene Badger and Lester Pander, son of the hosts. All of the honor guests are members of the immediate family of Mr. and Mrs. James Badger, Wurtemburg.

At six o'clock the group, numbering 30, was served a delicious chop suey dinner by the hosts. The tables featured a pink and white color scheme, centered with a very large, beautiful cake.

Cards, bingo and motion pictures willed away the hours in a pleasant manner, after which various gifts were presented to the honor guests.

Miss Helen Payne, New Castle, was an out-of-town participant.

Ellwood Red Cross Quota Doubled

Makes Notable Record In Campaign For War Relief Fund This Month

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 26.—Ellwood City again takes the spotlight and this time it is honored recognition from the county and national offices of the American Red Cross.

The Red Cross war fund campaign in Ellwood City has reached the $14,010.50 mark which is double the $7,000 quota set up by the county committee.

Ellwood City should be proud of this great piece of work and the overwhelming success is attributed to those many individuals who made contributions throughout Ellwood City, Perry township, Wayne township, Frisco, Burnstown, Chewton, Wiley Hill, Ellport, Wurtemburg, Parkville, Belton and also the generous donations given by the industries such as the Aetna-Standard Engineering company, Ellwood Forge company, National Tube company, Seamless Tube & Steel company, Cavit Wire company, Ellwood company and Ellwood Products company.

Business establishments, clubs, church groups and utility companies also came to the front with well appreciated generous donations.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellwood City did their share and what was accomplished in this most successful Red Cross war fund campaign can be accomplished in any drive to help win this war.

The executive committee of the Red Cross war fund campaign is made up of W. L. Dean of the Lawrence county committee, John Powell, chairman, W. F. Kegel and R. J. Schill and they have only the highest praise for the splendid work turned in by the average house to house canvasser in the drive.

These men and women who worked on this drive will receive special letters of recognition which will give them just credit for the success of the drive.

Red Cross First Aid Lessons

LESSON 5 Artificial Respiration

The standard technique for artificial respiration is to lay the patient on his stomach, one arm extended directly overhead, the other arm bent at elbow and with the face turned outward and resting on hand, so that the nose and mouth are free for breathing. Kneel straddling the patient's thigh, with your knees placed at a distance from the hip bones.

Place the palms of the hands on the small of the back with fingers resting on the ribs, the little finger just touching the lowest rib, with the thumb and fingers in a natural position and the tips of fingers just out of sight.

With the arms held straight, swing forward slowly, so that the weight of your body is gradually brought to bear upon the victim. The shoulder should be directly over the heel of the hand at the end of the forward swing.

Now immediately swing backward so as to remove the pressure completely. After two seconds, swing forward again.

Repeat unhurriedly 12 to 15 times a minute the double movement of compression and release, a complete respiration in four or five seconds. As soon as artificial respiration has been started, and while it is being continued, an assistant should loosen any tight clothing about the patient's neck, chest or waist. Keep the patient warm.

Administer No Liquids

Do not give any liquids whatever by mouth until the patient is fully conscious. To avoid strain on the heart when the patient revives, he should be kept lying down and not allowed to stand or sit up.

The major accidents for which artificial respiration is used are electric shock, gas poisoning, drowning, hanging and choking. Less frequent causes of asphyxia are blows on the head, neck solar plexus, buried in a cave-in, and an overdose of drugs. In any event, call a doctor.

MORE JAPANESE TRANSPORTS SUNK BY U. S. BOMBERS

lieved pressure temporarily on MacArthur's left flank, but military experts expressed concern over reports that the comparatively small defending army faced new Japanese attacks after suffering "considerable losses in the latest engagement."

Paying tribute to MacArthur's "brilliant maneuver," the war department in a communique told how the Japs were forced to flee in disorder leaving "hundreds of dead and large quantities of supplies on the battlefield," but it also warned that a renewed attack by the frustrated enemy might be expected momentarily.

Outnumbering the American-Filipino army by at least 10 to 1, the Japanese invaders, supported by naval vessels and aircraft, apparently are willing to pay any price in man-power and material for a stranglehold on the peninsula that separates the China sea from Manila bay.

Most ominous note in the communique was the disclosure that additional hostile troops had landed at night in Subic bay and on west coast of Bataan, presenting a fresh menace to MacArthur's beleaguered troops, who were reported to be "fatigued" from constant fighting.

Brazil is unique among the countries of the Western Hemisphere for its deposits of diamonds, according to the Department of Commerce.

Council Facing Decision On Pay For Service Men

Two Requests Are Before Council At Session This Morning

With war here and some city employees in service and others likely at any time to be summoned to military service council must make a decision.

To pay one-half of the employees wages to dependents, or to refuse payment.

The situation was brought to a head today when Mrs. Dent Shields, wife of a police sergeant, now in navy radio service, and James P. Trover, city fireman, about to be inducted into the army, visited council.

Fireman Trover inquired if council had made any decision regarding the reported act of assembly of 1917, which reportedly calls for payment of one-half an employee's wage to dependents.

Mayor Charles B. Mayne replied no decision had been arrived at pending the reported absence of an opinion from City Solicitor R. M. White.

Mrs. Shields said her husband had been in the service almost a year and she would like to have a reply in view of the action of the state highway department and city of Pittsburgh paying one-half the wage to dependents of employees in military service.

Mayor Mayne asserted that, were the city to take favorable action in the absence of an opinion from the solicitor, the members of council would be charged for any amount paid. It was wrong.

Mrs. Shields said that the solicitor had informed her he already had informed the council of his position. There have been some discussions between the council and the solicitor. No doubt he will be requested to immediately present an opinion for their guidance.

The men who enter the service are supposed to make affidavit giving dependents and then to request that such compensation be paid, according to reports.

Councilman Joseph D. Alexander, realizing that the situation is one that must be met, promised Mrs. Shields and Trover that a reply would be made in the near future.

It is a question that not only confounds law-makers of this city but also those of other cities. What-ever Solicitor White says should be done, no doubt will be done. However, it is a question that must be settled.

Meat prices, especially beef, have risen to record levels in the Union of South Africa, the Department of Commerce says.

U. S. Has Sent Over 5,000 Planes Across The Seas

They Are Currently Giving
Good Account Of Themselves, Says Congressman

By GRIFFING BANCROFT
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Rep. Snyder (D) Pa., discloses that the United States already has sent "more than 5,000" military planes to United States across the seas, and they are currently "giving a good account of themselves on seven battlefronts."

Snyder, chairman of the House appropriation subcommittee which handles war department funds, made the disclosure as the Senate prepared to act swiftly on a record $12,500,000,000 bill to give the army 33,000 additional planes with their bombs, guns and other equipment. The measure, the biggest single spending bill in history, was passed unanimously by the House and Senate leaders said it would get early consideration by the upper chamber.

In testimony supporting the new air corps bill, Lt. Gen. Henry H. Arnold, army air chief, warmly praised American fighting planes, and recited several official reports in which they had bested superior enemy forces.

These statements were made in answer to a report filed by the special Senate defense investigating committee which charged that 75 per cent of United States aircraft was inferior to European counterparts.

While officials are loath to mention exact numbers when discussing military equipment, Archibald MacLach, head of the office of facts and figures, announced that the army air corps ferrying command had already delivered more than 1,000 planes.

Snyder, however, said that the total figure of planes delivered to Allies runs "well over 5,000." "We have more than 5,000 planes in action abroad right at this moment," Snyder declared. "And American planes are giving a good account of themselves on seven battlefronts—the Philippines, the Malay peninsula, North Africa, Russia, the Suez Canal territory, England and Hawaii."

JUDGE BRAHAM HONORED

Judge W. Walter Braham has been honored by the State Supreme Court of Pennsylvania it was learned Saturday. In a letter of notification signed by Chief Justice William I. Schaffer, Judge Braham is appointed to a place on the Procedural Rules Committee of the Supreme Court, replacing P. J. Little of Ebsburg.

The Procedural Rules Committee is in effect the body that sets down the rules of practice for every attorney in the state. Formerly the rules of practice were laid down by statutory law but some time ago the General Assembly transferred this authority to the Supreme Court.

On the committee are outstanding judges and attorneys of the commonwealth and appointment upon this important committee is considered a recognition of the ability of the person thus honored. Former Chief Justice John W. Kephard is the chairman of the committee.

SENTENCE COURT

Four sentences were handed down Saturday morning by Judges W. Walter Braham and John G. Lamoree, three of them for driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

DESTROY PIN BALL MACHINES
Upon petition of District Attorney Leroy K. Donaldson, three pinball machines, taken in raids some time ago were ordered destroyed by the court.

STEEL FOR BRIDGE

After a long wait, the county commissioners expect to get the grid steel for the deck of the Cherry Street bridge inside of a week. Steel of any kind is difficult to get, priority ratings holding up many orders. The commissioners wanted to try one of the grid type of decks on this bridge and it was ordered several months ago.

Repairs to the bridge are rapidly nearing completion. When it is opened, Cherry street bridge will be a strong serviceable bridge, able to handle any traffic over it, allowed by law.

NEED ANOTHER STOKER

The addition to the court house has brought several added problems. The use of electricity in the addition puts a load too heavy for the wiring installatio into carry and electricians have been installing heavier wires. Another addition needed will be another stoker.

The stoker now in use will not carry enough coal to provide heat for the entire building and another one must be purchased. A new pump will also be needed.

ANNUAL REPORT NEAR READY

The annual report of the financial condition of the county is ready for the approval of the court and in a short time will be ready for publication. County Controller Frank W. Hill has been working upon the report for about two weeks and with some minor details only left, the report is about ready.

County Keeps Half Of Ball Proceeds

Birthday Ball Friday Night
Will Draw Crowd; Huge
Cake On Order

Half the proceeds of the President's Birthday Ball in the Cathedral Friday evening, January 30, will go to help needy infantile paralysis cases in Lawrence county and half will go to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, leaders of the dance stressed today.

Bakers today started work on the huge birthday cake which will be sold during the dance, and in addition to the cake three attractive door prizes are ready—a $25 defense bond, $10 worth of defense stamps and $5 worth of defense stamps.

Directors of the new Lawrence county chapter of the national foundation said tickets are in the hands of sub-committeemen and committeewomen and that advance indications point to a crowd for the 9 to 1 dance.

Like in past years, the local share of the proceeds will go to furnish braces, wheel chairs and other important needs for those afflicted.

A February boxing show is also planned as a benefit for the infantile paralysis cause.

Sergt. John Ball Gets Advancement

New Castle Man Assigned To Special Duty With Brigade
Headquarters

(Special To The News)

CAMP SHELBY, Miss., Jan. 26.—Upon the order of Brigadier General William A. March, commanding general of the 73rd Field Artillery Brigade, Sergeant John Ball, former New Castle man, was recently assigned to special duty with the brigadier headquarters.

NO. 19
WHO IS THE HEAD OF A FAMILY?

For income-tax purposes there can only be one head of a family. In addition to being the chief financial support, the head of a family must be related by blood, marriage, or adoption to his dependents, and he must have a legal or moral obligation to exercise family control over them and provide for their care. As such, he is entitled to the same exemption allowed a married person—that is, $1,500.

There are some unusual cases under this classification. A single person, who supports and maintains in one household one or more individuals who are closely connected with him by blood, by marriage, or by adoption, and whose right to exercise family control and provide for them is based upon a legal or moral obligation, is the head of a family, and as such is entitled to the exemption allowed a married person—that is, $1,500.

In addition, he may claim a credit of $400 for each of such individuals who is under 18 years of age or incapable of self-support because mentally or physically defective, except if the taxpayer occupies the status of the head of a family solely by reason of the existence of one or more of such individuals, the credit of $400 for one of such individuals is not allowable.

Another example not so much out of the usual is this: A widower who supports in his household his aged mother and his child 17 years of age is the head of a family, and as such is entitled to an exemption of $1,500 and a credit of $400 for one dependent.

Hyperopia is far-sightedness and myopia is near-sightedness. A large percentage of children have one or the other.

Myopia is by far the worst. It causes one-tenth of blindness in the United States.

The eyeball elongates, affecting the focusing power. A tendency toward myopia is frequently inherited.

Myopia usually develops during the growing period of a child. It ordinarily ceases to develop at about 21 years of age.

Progressive myopia keeps on developing in later life. This danger to sight can be retarded and minimized.

Sight-saving classes demonstrate much benefit. "Our eyes so magic—their loss so tragic!"

The VBC committee is well pleased with the response to date. There have been many contributions of not just one or two or three books, but of half a dozen or a dozen and more late books in excellent condition—from many people who are evidently making a real sacrifice to give books that they have recently read and enjoyed. Four Alarms Are Answered Here

Firemen answered four alarms over Sunday, none of which were for fires of any consequence. Damage of around $20 was done at the home of Ernest Huddle of 520 1/2 State street, at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, when children playing with cleaning fluid, set it afire. At 6 p. m. Sunday, anti-freeze leaking from the radiator of a car owned by Daniel Jennings, of 1320 Parrell Terrace, Farrell, caught fire. There was no loss.

At 6:40 p. m. Sunday, there was a smoke scare at 416 Fern street, smoke from the furnace filling the home.

At 5:10 p. m. Saturday, firemen were called to Cartwright Brothers at 317 East Washington street, where gasoline being used to clean the floor, caught fire. No action was required of firemen.

Former Local Guardsmen In Training For Year

By JOHN BALL
(Special News Correspondent)

CAMP SHELBY, Miss., Jan. 21.—The 73rd Field Artillery Brigade marched in review last Saturday before their commanding general, Brigadier General William A. March, in commemoration of its induction into federal service one year ago.

In commenting on the year, General March praised the men for their fine work and expressed his satisfaction at their great progress.

The general point out the fact that the men are better trained than men in the army of 1918. The reason for this, he stated, was that the duties of staff officers are better executed and because more enlisted men are becoming officers. This has helped the morale of the Army and has given it a greater balanced striking power, the general said.

This brigade is composed of the 166th, the 190th F. A. regiments, both originally from Pennsylvania, and the 141st regiment from New Orleans.

They have enjoyed an enviable health record and have passed the year with few injuries and a minimum of sickness.

The two New Castle batteries, Battery F and the Second Battalion Service Battery of the 190th Field Artillery regiment, members of this brigade, observed the event with battery parties in their recreational rooms. Every soldier was a guest of honor.

Games, music, singing and food with refreshments were the highlights of the informal affairs.

A. S. A. Enjoys Dinner-Meeting

An enjoyable event was held on Saturday evening when members of the Associated Stenotypists of America and guest stenotypists gathered for a dinner-meeting in the Elks club.

The delicious dinner was served at 6:45 o'clock, the invocation being given by Josephine Jenkins.

Florence Davis, local A. S. A. program chairman and national corresponding secretary, was toastmistress for the occasion and introduced the following speakers: Ronald Oldham, national charter director and newly elected president of the Pittsburgh chapter, Mary Alice Davis, member of Pittsburgh chapter and national president of A. S. A., who spoke on hobbies to be enjoyed during wartime, since restrictions are being placed on other forms of recreation.

The principal speaker of the evening was Harold Miller, court reporter of Meadville, who told of his experiences in the reporting field, giving valuable information on aspects in reporting, namely, conventions and court reporting.

An informal discussion period was held later and questions were asked relative to stenotyping. Those responsible for the success of the event were Florence Davis, Anzeline Castucci and Lydia Castucci.

Out-of-town guests included Mary Alice Davis, Ronald Oldham, Ruth Stewart and Sally Glass of Pittsburgh.

burgh, Clara Mae Housheer of Youngstown, Albert Billen of Masbury, O., and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Miller of Meadville, Pa.

Chairman John J. Alexander of the new program committee is keeping the program for Wednesday noon a mystery, it seems, but according to the Kiwanis bulletin "there's a treat in store for all members."

Dewey needn't expect a war job. It might give him a big reputation, and he's a darned Republican.

NEW CASTLE WINS IN EXTRA-PERIOD

Charley Ross Leads New Castle In Section Three Win Saturday Night

Play At Ellwood City Next Tuesday Night, Butler Here Next Friday

Forced into an extra-period the first time this season, a hard fighting but determined New Castle basketball team defeated a scrappy New Brighton High team here Saturday night at Washington High court 33 to 30 in a Section Three encounter. The regulation game ended 28-28.

New Brighton, led by Peluso and Lush, shot into the lead at the outset of the game and at the end of the period New Brighton enjoyed a 6 to 4 lead, Bobby Lee and Joe Ciazza having tallied the New Castle points.

Visitors Lead at Half
Eller of the New Brighton team got hot in the second period and so did Cooper and Ross for New Castle after being substituted. At the end of the first half the New Brighton team held a 13 to 12 lead.

New Castle High, led by Charley "Red" Ross, went into the lead early in the third period 15 to 14, and at the end of the third period held a 24 to 15 advantage, mainly through the work of Ross, who was the outstanding player in the game, with 17 of the New Castle points.

The fourth period began with Paton of New Brighton putting in a sleeper from under the hoop to make it 24 to 17. Farrow tipped in a rebound shot as Paton missed a foul making it 24 to 19.

New Castle Rallyes
Peluso sank two buckets to put New Brighton in the lead at 25 to 24. New Brighton had scored 12 points in four minutes and looked on the march. Peluso shot another basket to make it 27 to 24 New Brighton, and then Lee dumped in two fouls to make it 27 to 26 with the visitors still in front.

Ross sank the field goal that put New Castle in the lead at 28 to 27 with one minute left to play. Peluso made a foul shot that tied the count at 28-28 just as the gun boomed for the end of the game. In the extra three-minute period Ross sank a long one, Peluso made one out of two foul shots, Butler made a foul to tie it up at 30-30 and then Cooper looped in a field goal and Mellichar a foul to give New Castle the three-point advantage.

Ellwood Next
New Castle will go to Ellwood on Tuesday evening for the next game.

Titans Battle Geneva, Toledo

"Road Battles" This Week Rank As Two Of Tiffest Tests For Westminster

(Special To The News)
WESTMINSTER, Jan. 26.—Westminster college's Titans play two of the most important clashes on the card this week, battling Geneva college on Thursday night and the crack Toledo university five on Saturday night.

Since the engagements are "road battles," the Titans' task will be of an Herculean nature. The valley machine, piloted by "Slim" Ransom, vaulted into national prominence by defeating Duquesne, 49-45. While the Covies' season record is a 6 and 6 affair, they have not dropped a home tussle this season.

Toledo university today ranks one, two, three with the best in the business. Saturday the Ohioans traveled to Chicago and defeated Loyola. Bob Gerber, bespectacled center, is one of the top ranking scorers of the season.

Milton Jayvees Top Pearson Five

The Milton A. C. Junior Varsity team, known as the Jayvees, defeated the Pearson Boys Club five on Saturday morning at the Senior High floor 32 to 28, for their ninth win of the year, against four defeats.

At the half the Pearsons led 20 to 18. Best in the Milton lineup were: Liebenorfer and Fachenbaugh, with DeGenarro best for the losers. The Milton Jayvees would like to book games with all junior teams in the city and county. For games see Francis Stockham, William "Bill" Patton is coach of the Milton Big Five and also the Jayvees.

GOLF IN PHILLY
PHILADELPHIA—Golf Association of Philadelphia has gone ahead with plans to conduct every tournament and team match scheduled for the 1942 season.

HATLESS COACH
VILLANOVA, Pa.—Coach Maurice (Chopper) Smith of Villanova's football team never wears a hat, not even in the coldest weather.

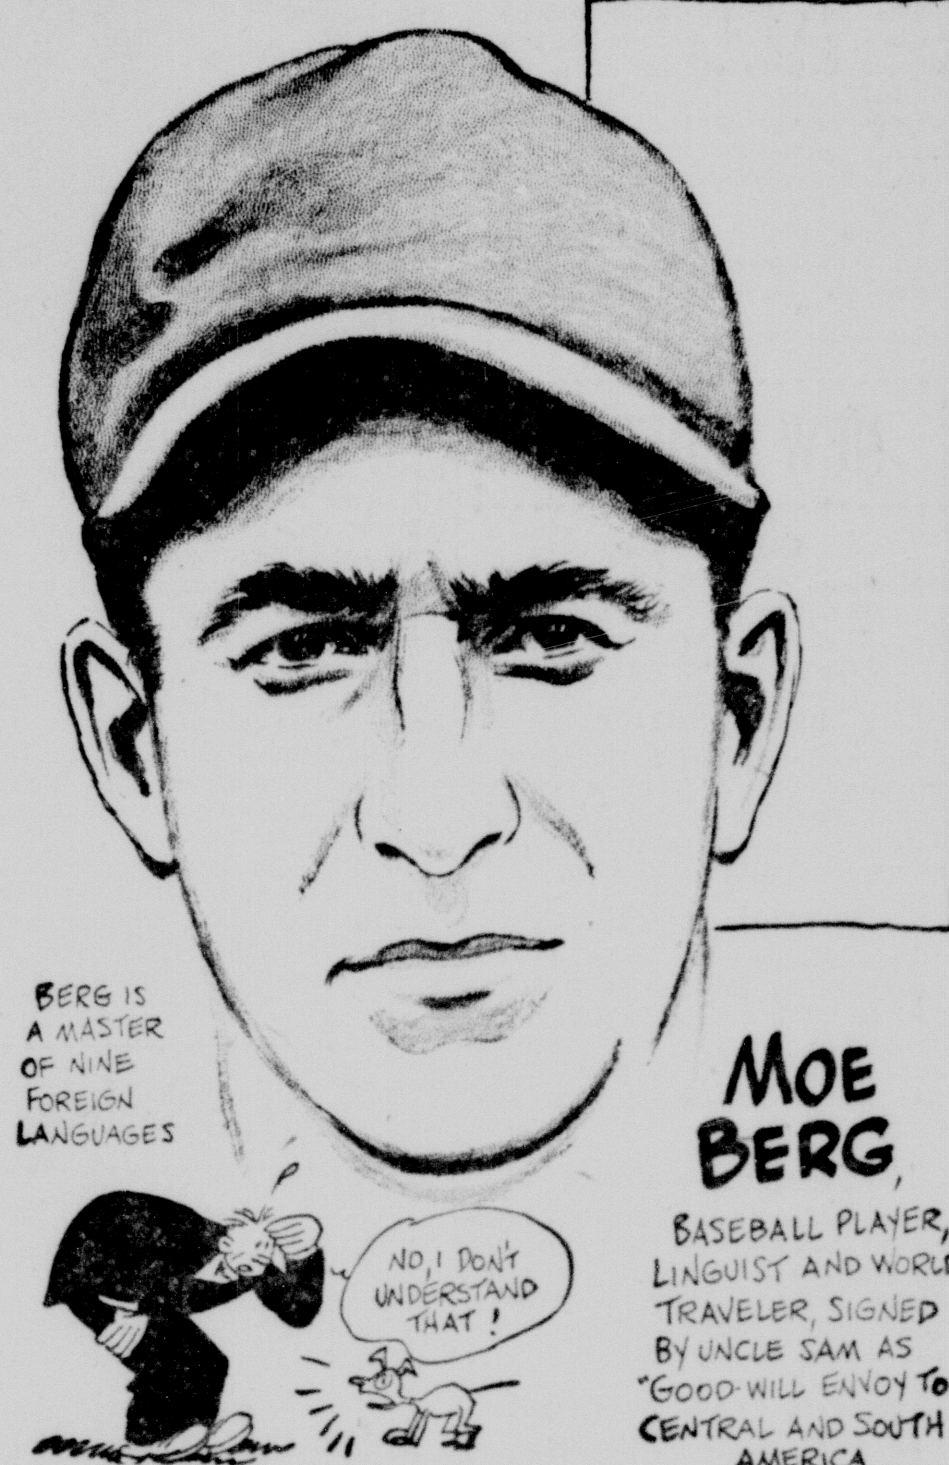

Monday sports potpourri:
Walter Jaskolska, a "Bill" Osman ski facsimile, may matriculate at Penn State next fall. The Union township high prize griddle, whose football kit is complete, will get a look at the campus within a week or so. Walt, who plows through the line like an army tank and passes exceptionally well, isn't 17 yet, weighs about 190 and is over six feet tall.

A. G. Capezutti, Bessemer high's athletic coach, became a pappy a day or so ago. The infant is a future coach. . . . The Section III and Section XX cage marathons end on the same night, Tuesday, Feb. 24. . . . Paul "Lefty" Minner, the New Wilmington ace, receives his baseball contract from Knoxville within the next two weeks.

Today's mail included an exceptionally interesting letter from Camp Lee. Penned by Jerry Maher Jr., Fred Marcella and Joseph V. Cooper, privates in Uncle Sam's army, the communique includes a few items of interest to New Castle's sports loving fraternity.

FAIR OR FOUL

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—The honestest brakeman has been around and about so long and up and down so often that his vital statistics virtually have been lost in the clouds of rosin dust raised by the stamping feet of bums and great fighters who have trod the prize ring canvas down through the years.

You are liable to butt into the honest brakeman anywhere from coast to coast, although in recent years he has operated mostly along the Atlantic seaboard.

And he is at home wherever you find him—stuffed with crab gumbo in New Orleans, surrounded by oysters in Baltimore, basking in the shade of a highball in Miami, or breathing luxuriously of fumes in any New York fight gymnasium. Right now he is an important man in the latter sports. Better known as Lew Diamond, he is preparing light heavyweight champion Gus Lesnevich, in whom he has an interest, for a bout with Bob Pastor next Friday night.

Lesnevich Wants Bout
If Lesnevich will that one impressively he will automatically qualify for a chance to get his intellect scattered all over Madison Square Garden in March or April by Joe Louis for the benefit of an army fund, according to plans announced by Promoter Mike Jacobs.

Lesnevich has as much right in the ring with Louis as Aunt Jemima, regardless of what he may accomplish against Pastor, but the extenuating circumstance is that Louis again will be fighting for nothing and Lesnevich for a modest percentage, plus a mess of lumps, bruises and abrasions.

Lesnevich's stable of managers, clubs in the army ranks, "Cy" Valasek, captain of last year's Duke university team; "Hank" Sorenson, the famous pro performer; Phil Scheiding, of the Detroit Eagles; Kahn, Temple university's star, and Chern, of the crack Oklahoma A. & M. five, form part of the personnel.

Cracking a line-up studded with such stand-out performers is quite a feat in Cooper's hat. Maher and Marcella are hooping it up with the 10th Regiment cage team. The trio sends greetings to all New Castle fans. In closing the service men would appreciate if we'd print their addresses so that "folks back home may be kind enough to drop us a line."

The localities are, or have been, transferred from Camp Lee. Their new addresses are: Fred Marcella, C. M. Co., Bakery, Overseas Recruit Depot, Fort Slocum, N. Y.; Jerry Maher, Jr., C. M. Detachment, 1324th C. A. S. U., Carlisle Barracks, Pa.; Joe Cooper, C. N. Corps, Third Armored Division, Camp Polk, La.

HOUSE LEAGUE GAME
The Pennsylvania Engineering Works quintet will play the Jewels tonight on a House league game at the "Y" at 7 o'clock.

Diamond and his entourage consisting of Evil Eye Ben Finkle, who never forgets to send Christmas telegrams collect, would ride the crest for no telling how long after a shot like that, even after making their own kickback to the fund. The one care in their generally carefree lives is that Pastor, has the habit of winning when it hurts.

Church League Games Tonight

Three games will be played in the New Castle Church Basketball league at the "Y" tonight, with the St. George Greeks playing the Central Christians in the first game at 7:45 o'clock.

In the second game the Central Presbyterians battle the St. Marys and in the third game, the St. Vitus team plays the Third U. P. quintet.

LOT OF "CHARLIES"
EAST LANSING, Mich.—When you mention Coach "Charlie" to Michigan State athletes they really are confused. There are four Spartan coaches named Charlie—Bachman, football coach; Smither, fencing coach; Ball, tennis coach, and McCaffree, Jr., swimming coach.

MORE RECOGNITION
NEW YORK—Joe Louis, the heavyweight champ, has won the Ring magazine's "Merit" award four times.

BASEBALLER IN ARMY
Bonnie Zientara, who was to get a trial at second with the Reds, is now in service.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS LAND

Jimmy Grippo, manager of Melo Bettina, heavyweight, who has won every fight since he flopped from a light-heavyweight into the heavier brigade, is attempting to steam up a fight with Private Joe Louis of the U. S. army who as all know is the world's champion heavyweight fighter. Grippo believes that Melo's left stance and style of battling would prove too much for Louis. Having seen both fight we'll take the opposite side of the case. Melo is tough, it's true, but his eyes cut too easy and Joe's right is much faster than Melo's left.

Congratulations to Willie Hoppe. He is yet supreme in three-cushion billiards, having again won the world's tourney in Chicago. Benny Homan led by four strokes to the $5,000 San Francisco open when he posted a 36-hole 136, eight under par, Sunday. Lawson Little of Chicago and Harry Bassler of Los Angeles tied for second with 149's.

New York U will decide today whether or not to retain football during the world's embargo. Earl Strohm of Atotona has been elected captain of Shippensburg Teachers for 1942. Indications point to Michigan State Baseball league being a war casualty because it will be voted out of being February 15.

Only a few days remain until the president's birthday ball to help the infantile paralysis fund after which the leather-throats will begin training for February 21, when a fistie docket will be presented to aid the same cause. The Jefferson A. C. already has launched plans to bring on some good amateurs.

Abe Simon and Harry Bobo, maddened of punch, will untire their best February 2 in Pittsburgh, following which Paul Carrabantes and Fritz Zivic, the ex-middleweight top, will appear in an infantile paralysis show which is being promoted in Pittsburgh.

Corporal Jack Fox, captain and defenseman of the Winnipeg Monarchs when they won the Canadian junior hockey championship in 1937 and later the property of the Toronto Maple Leafs in the National league, has been killed while serving overseas with the Canadian army.

Alex Gagen of Fitchburg, Mass., outskated the senior men's field in the five-mile race of the North American outdoor championships at St. Paul. His time was 19:50.2. Jim Deswarte of Monomoneie, Wis., was only a few beats behind Alex. Both were one lap ahead of the field.

Mike Pavella of Meadowslands, Pa., will lay away his golf sticks to take up a rifle. He will be inducted at Waynesburg. Charles S. Howard, Los Angeles, will ship 10 of his handicap horses, Mioland, Porter's Cap, et al., to Hialeah today. Les Cummings of New York beat Ed Schaefer of Baltimore in Cleveland, 15-11, 15-10, 4-15, 5-15, 12-15.

Billy Conn will work off superfluous weight via perspiration when he battles Jay Turner on Wednesday at St. Louis. New running records were set Saturday in New York in the A. A. U. meet. Les MacMicheal ran a mile in 4:13.3 and Greg Rice romped three miles in 14:10.7. Get Off, Circle M ranch horse, won the Palm Beach handicap at Hialeah on Saturday.

CLASSY PROSPECT
NEW YORK—Mel Queen, Yankee recruit pitcher, won 14 and lost five for Binghamton last season, but his best performance was turned in when he hurled a one-hit shut-out for Kansas City late in the season.

QUITE A RECORD
Forrest Cox, beginning his seventh year as basketball coach at the University of Colorado, had a record of 72 victories against 33 defeats.

With Jackson Congemi and Rozzano leading the way the New Castle High Reserves won a preliminary game Saturday night at Washington high court from the New Brighton Reserves 29 to 22. At the half the locals held a 14 to 9 advantage.

Section 20 antagonists spring into the second half of their sprint for basketball honors Tuesday night. Clashes tomorrow night pair: Shenango at East Brook; Mt. Jackson at New Wilmington; Union at Bessemer.

The most important tussle pits Union Township High against the league leading Bessemer five at Bessemer. The torrid pace set by the red and black suited passers has highlighted the first half of the dash. In all the Bessemerites have stifled title aspirations of their first six opponents.

Barring an ex-foldo similar to the Germans' collapse in Russia, Bessemer looms as the crown winner. By capturing its next four skirmishes, Capezutti's charges can commence to grid for the approaching Class B WPIAL tournament.

Union Dangerous
Tomorrow's battle, however, ranks as one of the major tests on the second half swing. Despite recent setbacks, the Patterson-coached aggregation can not be counted out. Aggressive and imbued with a never-give-up spirit, the Unionites are always dangerous. By winning the Scotland Lane entry can re-enter the title chase.

A triumph for Bessemer will push the Capezutti-piloted battalion a step closer to the title. With Grubbs, Tasola and Kreschew bombing the hoops with astounding accuracy, Bessemer takes the floor as a big favorite.

New Wilmington High, one of the most improved outfits in the league, is determined to remain in the scramble by spilling Mt. Jackson at New Wilmington. Now that "Kenny" Cathcart, Evans and Borowicz have hit their stride, the "Greyhounds" rank as one of the smoothest functioning quintets in the league.

"Greyhounds" Hit Stride
In tomahawking Union last Friday, New Wilmington "had everything." The defense was impeccable; the ball handling was beautiful to watch and the shooting was deadly. Mt. Jackson High, another dangerous club will have to display class plus to down the college towners.

East Brook plays host to Shenango Township High in a billing that should produce enough thrills to satisfy the most fastidious cage addict.

Four athletes, Parou, Stewart, Cooper and Ross hang up their uniforms following New Castle High's Section III contest with Ellwood City High, booked for a neighboring town.

The tiff should be a typical New Castle-Ellwood City game, meaning action, action and more action.

Westminster college's Titans are working time and half for their Thursday tussle with "Hot" Geneva college, conqueror of Duquesne university. The game, billed for Beaver Falls High court, is the tenth on the Titans' 21-game card.

Junior Church League Results

Four games were played on Saturday in the New Castle church junior league with the following results:

St. Marys 87, Central Christians 14; First Baptists 42, First Christians 11.

First Presbyterians 34, St. Phillips and James 10.

St. George 30, First Methodists 24.

Hope To End Red Cross War Fund Drive This Week

Workers Are Urged To Complete Canvass As Soon As Possible

DIES LECTURE WILL AID CAUSE

With only a few more thousand dollars needed to put the Lawrence County Red Cross War Relief Fund over the top, General Chairman Walter W. Duff, and his chairman, Judge W. Walter Brannan and William L. Dean, the latter of Ellwood City, are urging their workers to complete their canvass as quickly as possible so that the campaign can be brought to a conclusion. If the workers get busy, this can be accomplished this week, it is believed.

One of the highlights of this week's program will be the Martin Dies address in The Cathedral on Friday evening, when this famous Congressman, who has been crusading against subversive elements in this country for the past few years, will give a talk on the many things which have been found wrong in this country.

Red Cross officers are endorsing this address, the proceeds from which will be turned over to the War Relief Fund by the Legion of Honor, Masonic War Veterans, who are sponsoring the address.

Reserved seats for the lecture will be sold today at the Fleming Music store on North Mill street.

GIRLS' CHORUS TO PRESENT COMEDY ON THURSDAY EVENING

The girls' chorus of Fairlawn high school will present a comedy, "The Twelve Old Maids and the Spinsters Chorus," at the Liberty Theatre hall on Thursday evening, January 29, at 8 o'clock.

The program will be directed by Mrs. Esther Eakin.

Legion Of Honor To Meet Tonight

Final Check Will Be Made On Ticket Sale For Dies Address

Commander Ralph H. Montgomery, of the Legion of Honor, announced today, that a special meeting of the Chapter will take place this evening in the Legion of Honor rooms in The Cathedral, when a final check will be made on the ticket sale for the address by Congressman Martin Dies, which will take place Thursday evening, January 29.

It is believed that a record ticket sale will be shown by the membership. Reserved seats were placed on sale today at the Fleming Music store, and reservations were being taken up rapidly.

Mary Livingstone Suffers Collapse

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 26.—Mary Livingstone, wife of comedian Jack Benny, was confined to her home today as the result of collapsing at the conclusion of the Benny broadcast, in which she is one of the stars, last night.

It was said that she has been under treatment for some time for a sinus infection.

The actress fainted on the stage a moment after the program went off the air. She was carried to her dressing room by Benny and Phil Harris and later was taken home.

Three More Enlist For Navy Service

Walter Tomlinson and John Adams, both residents of Ellwood City, were among the three men who enlisted in the United States navy through the New Castle recruiting office in the past few days.

John Albert Royer, 135 South Broad street, Grove City, also joined.

But we'd like to bet that the rich and the big shots in this land of equality will never have to walk.

Draft Ruling On Men Married After December 8

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Jan. 26.—Men of draft age who married after the United States declared war on December 8, will not be eligible for deferment on that ground, State Selective Service headquarters disclosed today.

Excluded as grounds for deferment also were all other dependents voluntarily acquired by eligible registrants after that date. According to new regulations sent to the state's 422 draft boards, registrants would be eligible for 3-A classification when the death of a family provider makes the registrant responsible for support of his family.

Only men who can convince their local boards that their new dependents were acquired through "circumstances beyond their control" can obtain deferment.

Special to The New York Times

West, deputy director of the Office of Price Administration, and L. J. Rosenwald, chief of the Bureau of Industrial Conservation of the Office of Production Management, said that savings in tires, trucks and paper would result. According to the officials, parcels sent out on delivery trucks require much heavier wrappings than when they are carried away by the consumer.
